

Announcement of the Ministry of Digital Economy and Society
Subject: Security Standards for Personal Data Security B.E.

Whereas Section 3 paragraph two of the Royal Decree Determine the units and activities that the controller Personal data is not subject to the Personal Data Protection Act B.E. stipulates that the data controller who is an agency or business under the list annexed to such Royal Decree Security measures of personal data in accordance with the standards set by the Ministry of Digital for the economy and society

By virtue of Section 3 paragraph two of the Royal Decree specifying an agency and businesses in which the Personal Data Controller is not subject to the Personal Data Protection Act 2019, the Minister of Digital Economy and Society has issued an announcement.
as follows

Article 1 This announcement is called “Notification of the Ministry of Digital Economy and Society on Standards Maintaining the Security of Personal Data, B.E.

Clause 2 This Notification shall come into force from the day following the date of its publication in the Government Gazette until the date of May 31, 2021

Article 3 in this announcement “Personal Data Controller” means a Personal Data Controller which is an agency.
or business according to the list annexed to the Royal Decree Determine the agencies and businesses that the personal data controller
Not subject to the Personal Data Protection Act B.E. 2562 B.E. 2563

“Security of personal data” means maintaining confidentiality.
(confidentiality), accuracy, completeness (integrity) and condition for use (availability) of personal data in order to prevent loss, access, use, alteration, correction or disclosure Misrepresentation of personal data

Article 4 The personal data controller must notify the measures to maintain the security of the data.
personal according to this announcement to personnel, employees, employees or related persons, including raising awareness of the importance of It is important to protect personal information for such groups of people.
Strictly follow the measures set forth.

Article 5 The Data Controller must provide measures to maintain the security of the data.
personal, which should include administrative protection measures (administrative safeguard) Technical safeguards and physical protection measures safeguard) in regard to access or control of the use of personal data (access control), at least Must consist of the following actions:

- (1) Controlling access to personal data and data storage and processing equipment personal with regard to use and security
- (2) the determination of permission or the determination of the right to access personal data;
- (3) user access management to control
Access to personal data only for authorized persons
- (4) Determination of user responsibilities to prevent Unauthorized access to personal information, disclosure, knowing or smuggling of copies.
Personal, theft of devices for storing or processing personal data
- (5) the provision of means to enable retrospective review of access, change, deletion; or transfer personal information in accordance with the methods and media used for collection, use or disclose personal information

Article 6 The Data Controller may choose to use security standards. of personal information that is different from this announcement If such standards have measures to maintain Security not less than those specified in this announcement.

Article 7 The Minister of Digital Economy and Society shall take charge of this Notification.
and have the power to interpret and diagnose problems arising from the compliance with this announcement